MEMORIES

"Casey's Irish Pub," also known as Casey's Bar & Grill, is a historic watering hole located in Downtown Los Angeles. The building dates back to 1916 and has undergone various transformations, including being a general store, Turkish bath, upscale restaurant named B&M Cafeteria, and eventually becoming Casey's Irish Pub in 1969. The bar is situated in a two-story building with over 10,000 square feet of space.

The pub features a variety of amenities, including a mahogany bar, hand-pressed tin ceilings, a live-music stage, a dart room, a billiards room, and several private event areas such as the "Captain's Quarters." The ambiance is described as fabulous and unique, and the food is praised, particularly the pub fries and Cobb salad. The staff is commended for their friendliness.

One notable aspect of Casey's is its appearance in numerous movies and television productions. Filmmakers appreciate the pub's unique ambiance, often portraying it as a location outside of Los Angeles due to its New York vibe. Casey's has stood in for various bars in movies like "Mr. Deeds," "16 Blocks," "Charlie Wilson's War," "Good Night and Good Luck," "Fallen," and "The Deep End of the Ocean." Additionally, it has been featured in episodes of the television series "Mad Men."
